Scandic Palace Hotel

"Deluxe Hotel"

The location of this large deluxe establishment simply can't be beaten. Located next to the Town Hall Square and across the road from the Tivoli Gardens, The Palace Hotel's rooms are refurbished and have their own bathroom, telephone, TV, radio, mini-bar, desk, trouser press and hairdryer. The on-site Nordic restaurant is a fine choice for a contemporary meal, while the Scandic Palace Bar is a glamorous place to have a nightcap. Special services for children and disabled individuals are provided, as well as several conference facilities and meeting room.

Hotel Phoenix Copenhagen

"Stylish & Luxurious"

Hotel Phoenix opened in 1990 after a complete restoration of the historic, 300-year-old building. Now it is a luxury hotel of the highest standard, with spacious rooms decorated with antique furniture. All rooms have a telephone, TV, mini-bar, safe, iron, and a private bathroom made of Italian marble. Executive rooms have air conditioning and a jacuzzi as well as their own fax-machine. The hotel is centrally located between Kongens Nytorv and Amalienborg, with Strget, Nyhavn and Rosenborg Garden within walking distance. The hotel has its own bar and restaurant.

Bella Sky Comwell

"Modern business hotel"

As far as first impressions go, Bella Sky Comwell's spectacular leaning buildings connected by a walkway mid-air, will take your breath away. The eye-catching structure dominates Orestaden's skyline. An extension of the fantastic facilities at the Bella Center, the hotel is primarily targeted at business travelers, but offers all the comforts that a leisure traveler would expect. Each of the hotel's 812 rooms feature floor-to-ceiling windows allowing plenty of natural light and spectacular views of the city. Equipped with designer furniture and a host of modern amenities, the rooms make for a pleasant stay. Start your day with the extensive breakfast buffet at the BM Restaurant. You can enjoy delectable international fare at The Balcony Restaurant. The Lobby Bar is a relaxed space to unwind while the Sky Bar offers premium champagnes with sweeping city views. The hotel's business facilities are extensive, with no less than 28 conference rooms to cater to every need.
