

"Best Local Products & Souvenirs in Ft. Worth"

Created By: Cityseeker

 7 Locations Bookmarked

Pendery's

"Southwestern Spice"

Pendery's is a market specializing in the Southwestern chili peppers and spices that can add a distinctive kick to any dish. Bringing the spice to the people since the 1800s, Pendery's used to deliver its product by horse-drawn stagecoach, but has brought its operation into the modern world with this specialty boutique and an online marketplace. In addition to Southwestern seasonings, Pendery's also offers cookbooks, housewares and textiles to complete your kitchen.

 +1 817 924 3434

 www.penderys.com/

 1407 8th Avenue, Ft. Worth TX

Retro Cowboy

"Unique Texas Gifts"

Retro Cowboy is a playground for the person who has everything. This boutique offers unique gifts and souvenirs that don't exist anywhere else in Fort Worth, let alone in all of Texas or perhaps even all of the Southwest. This shop in Sundance Square offers plenty of Texas-specific gifts such as cowboy boots and John Wayne lunchboxes, but it also features things a little more unusual. Visitors rave about the Dublin Dr. Pepper, sweetened with pure cane sugar rather than the sticky high fructose corn syrup that most of today's soda's contain.

 +1 817 338 1194

 406 Houston Street, Ft. Worth TX

Earth Bones

"Unique Shop on Main"

Earth Bones has been providing unique gifts to the Fort Worth area for more than 20 years. This is the kind of store you go into with no preconceived notions of what you're looking for; rather, spend your time sorting through a collection of possible gifts — ranging from cute to just plain out there — and let the right gift find you. Find here a mix of assorted items ranging from jewelry and clothing to incense and candles. You're pretty much guaranteed to find the perfect something for your friends or loved ones here at Earth Bones.

 +1 817 332 2662

 308 Main Street, Fort Worth TX

Artspace 111

"High quality gallery"

A leading venue for showcasing contemporary art works of local artists, Artspace 111 believes in helping struggling artists and works diligently towards promoting them too. The charming location also doubles up as an entertainment venue for weddings and special occasions.

 +1 817 692 3228

 artspace111.com/

 art@artspace111.com

 111 Hampton Street, Fort Worth TX

Stockyards National Historic District

"Historic Fort Worth Cattle Market"

This is a great way to experience Fort Worth's history. The Stockyards was once the second-largest cattle market in the world. Renovated for tourism in 1976, the district brims with entertainment, including restaurants, shopping and Wild West performances. Events include the Chishold Trail Round-up, held annually in June, and the Fort Worth Stockshow and Rodeo, held annually beginning in January. Visit Stockyards Station, where there is even a small children's amusement park.

+1 817 625 9715

www.fortworthstockyards.org/

info@fortworthstockyards.org

131 East Exchange, Fort Worth TX

Pinkie's Uncommon Treasures

"Cowgirl Fab Aesthetic"

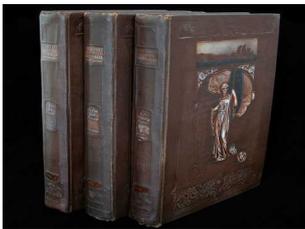

Pinkies Uncommon Treasures is a unique boutique that offers a number of one-of-a-kind gifts and accessories. The shop's cowgirl roots show through in every piece, from its hand-crafted Texas-inspired jewelry to Western-style clothing. Pinkies Uncommon Treasures also carries a selection of furniture to ensure that your space matches the aesthetic of your cowgirl-fab wardrobe.

+1 817 880 9818

www.fortworthstockyards.org/Business.aspx?blid=128&type=3

115 West Exchange Avenue, Ft. Worth TX

The Enchanted Forest

"Cozy neighborhood children's bookstore"

This neighborhood children's bookstore is indeed enchanting. With more than 45,000 titles on hand, there is something to thrill children of all ages. The knowledgeable clerks will help you find that perfect selection. Cozy up in one of the corners and relive the magic of Alice in Wonderland or grab the latest Harry Potter adventure. In a day when small bookstores rarely survive, Enchanted Forest has been around since 1992 because personalized service and the cozy atmosphere keeps customers coming back again and again.

+1 817 446 8385

6619 E Lancaster Avenue, Ft. Worth TX

JOIN US AT:

cityseeker.com