Central BBQ

"Slow-Smoked Barbecue"

Central BBQ is famous for slow-smoked barbecue served in what it claims to be the Memphis Style. This Downtown location is a favorite with professionals working in the area, and children, adults and senior citizens alike. Start your meal with an appetizer like BBQ Nachos and Smoked Hot Wings, then go on to enjoy a Beef Brisket Plate, Turkey Plate or a Ribs Platter that can be shared among two to four people. You can also opt for a combo platter or sandwiches in varieties like BBQ Bologna and Smoked Sausage. Do not miss the delicious cheesecake and Peanut Butter Pie for dessert. This eatery offers bulk packs and large meat trays for sharing among a group, and caters for private parties.

Franklin Barbecue

"Meat Lovers Heaven"

Franklin Barbecue is open only for lunch from 11a, till the time it is sold out, which is usually even before it opens. This is the reason you'll see a serpentine queue outside the restaurant right from 8a. However, the wait is well worth it because they serve some of the best barbecue delights that will have you craving for more. Absolutely try the pulled pork, ribs, sausages and brisket. They also have sandwiches, sides and desserts available, but it's for the chunky meat that patrons come here for.
