Unionmade

"Stylish Shopping Destination for Men"

If there was a store dedicated to the grooming needs of the new-age metrosexual man, Unionmade would be it. Located on Sanchez Street, Unionmade houses a diverse range of retail options for men. This stylish high-end store has under its roof nearly 100 men's clothing and accessory brands, such as Birkenstock, Alden, Levi's vintage clothing and many more. Peripheral to clothing, Unionmade includes a range of department for the modern man, some of which include even apothecary products, optical wear, sleepwear, leather goods and swim wear. Head to Unionmade to indulge in an assortment of classic and modern goods.

Mira Mira

"Mission Chic"

Mira Mira is a small, colorful neighborhood women's clothing boutique that specializes in indie designers from all over the world. Besides clothing, the store carries accessories, makeup and lotion, and a nice collection of jewelry. Mira Mira is a great place to shop for modern, casual clothing from designers that are difficult to find elsewhere. The guiding mantra here tends to be essentially quality design and construction from brands that aren't found elsewhere. If a store embodies the current Mission District chic, this is it.

Marmalade

"Sweet as Sugar"

Since opening in 2007, this charming clothing boutique has been voted best women's boutique in the Bay Area four times. There's a bohemian vibe to the store, strengthened by the smell of its signature fragrant candles, the carefree, earthy clothing brands, and the indie rock that seems to be always on. The collection of shoes, clothing, and accessories is cute, nicely curated, and also affordable.
