This massive mall, spread across 20,440 square meters (220,000 square feet), houses popular stores like H&M, Mango, Banana Republic, Swarovski, Topshop, Calvin Klein and many more. ### Westfield London Shopping Center

"Westfield-the New West End?"

Architecturally impressive, Westfield's intriguing structure is worth visiting for the design alone. Its curving lines ensure that it avoids the stark, stuffy and angular feel of many shopping centers, while the sheer variety of shops, stalls and boutiques means it offers something for everyone. In the main mall area, there's a harmonious mix of everything from premium labels to high street chains, department stores to smaller individual outlets. Meanwhile, in The Village, luxury brands abound, with a central champagne bar providing a welcome stop-off. If that's beyond your budget, don't worry; there are over 40 eateries of varying prices, standards and nationalities. Given Westfield has all this along with the latest amenities and excellent transport links, it's no wonder so many shoppers are going West.

Brent Cross Shopping Centre

"North West London's Pride"

Brent Cross Shopping Centre is one of the most popular shopping destinations in Northwest London, and with good reason, too. Whether you're looking to buy clothing, accessories, homewares, electrical appliances or sports and outdoor gear, you will find it all. Banana Republic, Accessorize, French Connection and Sunglass Hut, all have outlets here. If you want to take a break from all that shopping you've been doing, you can grab a quick bite from Auntie Anne's Pretzels or Millie's Cookies; you could also enjoy a full meal at Carluccio's or Ed's Easy Diner. The mall also has a range of childcare facilities, so you need not leave the little ones at home.
