Milk Street Cafe

"Veggie Meals"

The Milk Street Café has a selection of quality yet inexpensive vegetarian meals. The sandwiches include tuna, mushroom or veggie melts, salmon, egg salad and antipasto. Pizza, quiche, soups and salads are also on the menu. Espresso, cappuccino, teas and fresh squeezed lemonade are among the beverage choices. This place is small and popular, so it fills up quickly. Patrons sit at butcher block tables after they've gone through the cafeteria line.

Flour Bakery & Cafe

"Sweet Homemade Treats and Quck Bites"

If you love food like warm baguettes straight from the oven, chocolate truffle tarts, lemon curd cakes and made-to-order salads and sandwiches, then Flour Bakery & Cafe is for you! These simple, everyday-foods at Flour can make your day. Start your morning with a warm muffin and a latte, pastries and cookies for after lunch. For lunch, try the cheesy polenta with spicy tomato sauce or an oven-baked asparagus and potato torte. If you're too full to try all of this right here, then you could buy some them and enjoy them back home! Flour Bakery & Cafe has won the Best of Boston award four times and that's one more reason to visit here!

Parish Cafe and Bar

"Delicious Sandwiches"

This Back Bay establishment represents one of Boylston Street's better places to stop and eat, both indoors or outside on the patio. A pub-style atmosphere featuring wooden paneling mixed in with brightly painted walls awaits you as does a diverse menu. The sandwiches are famous here with grilled creations, including chicken, mushroom, meatloaf and tenderloin. A long list of specialty martinis are served and the bar also offers an ample beer and wine selection.

Cutty's

"Brookline's Sandwich Heaven"

At Cutty's, the menu must-tries are the exceedingly delicious sandwiches. The restaurant is famous for creating these from scratch and using the best local produce. The bread is brought daily from the famous Iggy's Bread of the World in Cambridge and also serves succulent meats, roasted in front of the diners. The Spuckie and Pork Fennel sandwiches stand out as the best in the menu. Additionally, the restaurant has a special Chicken Sandwich which they make during their Super Cluckin' Sundays. Cutty's was ranked by 'The Huffington Post' as one of top 10 sandwich places in America, making it a must-try eatery.
