

"Best Shops for Women in Boston"

Created By: Cityseeker

 3 Locations Bookmarked

Newbury Street

"Upscale Shopping & People Watching"

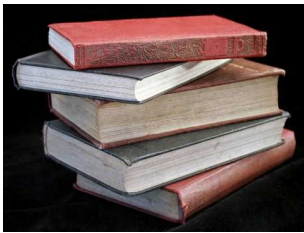

Any shopper will enjoy a stroll down this street, which features eight blocks of upscale boutiques, shops, restaurants, cafes and bars. On warm weekends, the sidewalks are teeming with window shoppers, street performers and overflowing outdoor cafes. Located in the historic Back Bay, much of the brownstone architecture is influenced by the Art Nouveau style of the 1920s. In addition, chic galleries and restaurants, such as Stephanie's on Newbury and Sonsie, attract a well-dressed, sophisticated crowd.

 +1 617 635 4500 (Tourist Information)

 www.newbury-st.com

 29 Newbury Street, Boston MA

Brodney Antiques and Jewelry

"Estate Jewelry"

Established back in 1939, Brodney's is a family-owned boutique specializing in antiques and estate jewelry. With over seven decades in the business, they pride themselves on unrivaled service and a personal touch that's hard to replicate. Explore two levels of rare artifacts, Asian and European fine art work, paintings and antique objects with a unique story to tell. The place is a favorite among couples looking for vintage engagement rings and wedding bands, with an array of affordable pieces on offer. The inventory also includes retro accessories, pocket watches, cuff links, sunglasses, silverware, clocks, china, porcelain, ceramics and exquisite home decor.

 +1 617 536 0500

 info@brodney.com

 145 Newbury Street, Boston MA

Michelle Willey

"Sophisticated Boutique"

Located in the hip South End neighborhood of Boston, Michelle Willey is a contemporary boutique. With a well-curated collection of home furnishings, apparel and fashion accessories for both men and women, its no wonder this boutique has been featured in various magazines and garnered a handful of accolades. All of the pieces found in this shop, from the high thread count Egyptian cotton sheets to the porcelain tableware and bath towels, are handpicked for their outstanding quality and craftsmanship. Whatever your style, Michelle Willey is sure to catch your eye.

 +1 617 424 6700

 www.michellewilley.com/

 8 Union Park Street, Boston MA

JOIN US AT:
cityseeker.com