Millennium Biltmore Hotel

"Opulent & Historic"

The Italian-Spanish influence is evident almost everywhere at the Millennium Biltmore Hotel. The hand-painted frescoes, the bas-relief décor, the fountains, the polished wood floors, the ornate ceilings and the abundant flowers all contribute to class and elegance that is practically beyond words. A favorite since 1923, and a member of Historic Hotels of America, this famed hotel hosted the Academy Awards during the 1930s and 1940s. Guests have included dignitaries like Winston Churchill, Presidents Kennedy, Ford, Carter and Reagan, as well as British royalty.

Hotel Bel-Air

"Secluded Magical Haven"

This wondrous and magical 1940s Mission-style hotel is nestled in a 12-acre (five-hectare) landscaped woodland garden. Meander over the bridge on Swan Lake as you enter the foyer/reception area, and you are transported to a land of fairy-tale wonder, lavishness and anonymity. The California-French cuisine in the dining room has won many accolades. Stay for a drink in the bar or on the patio, and enjoy the pianist. Rates vary with season. Hotel Bel-Air was opened in 1946 and has served celebrities and politicians who appreciated the hotel's luxurious charm.

Aztec Hotel

"21st Century Aztec Architecture"

If you're searching for a unique hotel experience, the Aztec Hotel is sure to provide you with just what you are looking for. A historical landmark listed on the National Register of Historic Places, this hotel is an amazing example of Mayan Revival architecture. The 44-room accommodation is designed keeping in mind the ornate architecture present during the Mayan and Aztec civilizations. Moderately priced, it provides accommodation on daily, monthly and weekly basis. The Mayan Room and its adjoining courtyard delivers the perfect backdrop for hosting private parties and functions complete with a bar, a dance floor and a garden patio with a wood-fire pit and fish pond. Rooms rates start at USD45 plus taxes.
