Downtown Antique Mall

"One Stop for Antique Lovers"

Nothing adds character to a home or office like antique furniture and accessories, and no location has more antiques than Downtown Antique Mall. Housed in an old warehouse, this 13,000 square feet showplace is home to several antique dealers. You'll see hard-to-find items, such as furniture from the Art Deco period; Victorian furniture as well as local and regional originals are also sold.

Wonders on Woodland

"Antique Wonders at Five Points"

Wonders on Woodland is located in the trendy and new Five Points shopping district in the historic East End neighborhood of East Nashville. Wonders on Woodland adds the perfect touch to this Nashville hot spot. This converted Victorian home is now filled with antiques, vintage games, mid-century jewelry and decorative items and Victorian furniture. This single location is also home to two other shops, Cloud 12 and Back East. While each shop is unique, the entire building is sometimes referred to as Wonders on Woodland, and is well worth a visit.

8th Avenue Antique Mall

"One-Stop Antique Shopping"

This large warehouse-style antique mall includes an eclectic mix of vintage pieces organized by individual vendor. The shop offers a wide selection of antique furniture, glassware, dolls, linens, and collectibles. A number of vendors also offer a better-than-average selection of antiquarian books. The prices are competitive for this style of antique shop and the service is helpful and friendly. The store also features a half-price selection in a small adjoining room near the back of the store. This antique mall is a terrific first stop in the 8th Avenue Antiquing District of Nashville.

Pre to Post Modern

"Not Your Typical Antique Shop"

If you are looking for all things retro, this is the antique shop for you. This fun and funky store features vintage furniture pieces from the 1950s, 1960s and 1970s, as well as all sorts of American classic kitsch bric-a-brac. Walking through the doors is like stepping back a few decades into the colorful tones of retro styles. In addition to furniture and classic collectibles, the store also offers a fabulous selection of vintage clothes, shoes and jewelry. This is the kind of shop that might make you say, "Oh, I had one of those!"
